WINE SELECTION

CHAMPAGNE

Champagne is a sparkling wine produced from grapes grown in the Champagne region of France following rules that demand secondary fermentation of the wine in the bottle to create carbonation. The primary grapes used in the production of Champagne are black Pinot noir and Pinot Meunier & white Chardonnay.

WHITE WINES

CHARDONNAY

Chardonnay's make consistently excellent, rich and complex white wines. Typically, these wines offer bold, ripe, rich and intense fruit flavors of fig, melon, pear, peach, pineapple, lemon and grapefruit along with spice, honey, butter, butterscotch and hazelnut flavors. This is a very versatile grape and grows well in a variety of locations throughout the world, particularly in Burgundy, Australia and California.

CHENIN BLANC

The best expression of Chenin is as a dry wine, with flavors of quince and apples, an off-dry style, developing honey and floral characteristics with age. In the best vintages the grapes can be left on the vines to develop noble rot, producing an intense, viscous dessert wine which may improve considerably with age. Its high acidity means it can be used to make everything from sparkling wines to well-balanced dessert wines, in cool areas the juice is sweet but high in acid with a full-bodied fruity palate.

SAUVIGNON BLANC

Another great white varietal, this one is with a notable grassy or musky aroma. The pure varietal is found mainly in the Loire, at Sancerre and Pouilly-Fumé. New Zealand has had striking success with Sauvignon Blanc, producing its own perfumed, fruity style that spread across North America and then back to France.

RIESLING

Riesling is an aromatic grape variety displaying flowery, almost perfumed, aromas as well as high acidity. It is used to make dry, semi-sweet, sweet and sparkling white wines. In cool climates, such as German Riesling wines tend to exhibit apple and tree fruit notes with noticeable levels of acidity that is sometimes balanced with residual sugar.

TEMPRANILLO BLANCO

Tempranillo blanco produces medium-sized clusters with loose, average size berries that are yellow-green in color. The variety buds late but goes through veraison and ripens early. At harvest the grapes usually have a high malic acid and high levels of aromatic phenolic compounds such as terpenes that contribute floral, tropical and citrus notes to the wine.

RED WINES

CABERNET SAUVIGNON

This grape is a remarkably steady and consistent performer all over the world. In Bordeaux it is blended with Cabernet Franc, Merlot, and Petit Verdot to create some of the world's most famous great wines. For our Cabernet Sauvignon collection we have selected a few outstanding styles of this great red grape.

PINOT NOIR

Pinot Noir, the great grape of Burgundy offers the classic black cherry, spice, raspberry and currant flavors and an aroma that can resemble wilted roses, along with earth, tar, and herb and cola notes. A fickle grape to grow as it reacts to environmental changes is therefore different in different parts of the world.

MERLOT

Merlot is the red wine success story of the 1990's: its popularity has soared along with its acreage. Although it dominates most of Bordeaux, it also produces great variants in Washington State and California. Unblended, the Merlots produce simple, light, balanced red wines highlighting their drink ability.

SANGIOVESE

Sangiovese is best known for providing the backbone for many superb Italian red wines from Chianti and Brunello di Montalcino, as well as the so-called super-Tuscan blends. It is distinctive for its supple texture and medium to full-bodied spice, raspberry, cherry and anise flavors.

CANTALICI CHIANTI CLASSICO DOCG BARRUFO, ITALY 9000

TEMPRANILLO

Tempranillo is a black grape variety widely grown to make full-bodied red wines in its native Spain. Its name is the diminutive of the Spanish temprano ("early"), a reference to the fact that it ripens several weeks earlier than most Spanish red grapes.

CAMPO VIEJO TEMPRANILLO RIOJA, SPAIN 5900

GRENACHE

Dominant in Southern Rhone, it is one of the most widely planted grape varieties in the world. Grenache is valued for the added body and fruitiness that it brings without added tannins. The characteristics notes of Grenache are berry fruits such as raspberries & strawberries.

COTES DU RHONE P. FERRAUD, FRANCE 5900

MALBEC

Originally a French red grape, which is trifling in France but the main variety of Argentina and grown in Chile. The wines are dark red, full bodied quite tannic and not too much acidic, it has aromas of leather cacao & ripe red fruit.

BODEGAS NORTON MALBEC, MENDOZA, ARGENTINA 5900

NEBBIOLO

It originally comes from Piedmont, where it is the only grape used in the production of Barolo & Barbaresco, the two main red wines of Italy. The wines obtained from this variety are strong, quite tannic, with a good acidity and a high alcoholic gradation.
