

TAJ USHA KIRAN PALACE
GWALIOR

Commissioned by HH Maharaja Jayaji Rao Scindia 143 years ago, Taj Usha Kiran Palace is a regal haven nestled in a 9-acre estate with fountains and pools. This magnificent retreat seamlessly blends the grandeur of Gwalior's royal heritage with contemporary luxury in its 50 expansive rooms and suites, adorned with intricate filigree work. A chance to peer into the living history of this silent sentinel that reverberates with the city's storied past and indulge in the finest traditions of Maratha royal life at the palace, where regality, opulence, and contemporary luxury converge to craft an experience that is unique and unforgettable.

Taj Usha Kiran Palace stands as a meticulously restored royal gem, enveloped in serenity and grandeur. Featuring arched doorways, lattices, chandeliers, intricately carved pillars, and stained glass windows, it stands as an invitation to explore this architectural marvel.

Its facade boasts intricate sandstone filigree, a remarkable feat in craft, offering a glimpse of the opulence within. This restoration carefully preserves the 19th-century royal splendour while incorporating modern comforts. The palace fuses pan-Indian architectural styles, showcasing a rich and layered legacy. Inside, historical mementoes from the royal family decorate the space, and the staff, dressed in Maratha regalia, ensure an authentic regal experience.
