

Taj Deccan

Hyderabad

F A C T S H E E T

The capital of Andhra Pradesh, Hyderabad is an integral part of the famous twin-city pair of Hyderabad and Secunderabad, which are situated on opposite banks of the Hussain Sagar Lake. Hyderabad has a romantic story behind its birth. Mohammed Quli Qutub Shah, the fifth king of Golconda, founded this city of Bhagyanagar in 1591 for the sake of his lover Bhagmathi. Later he renamed the city as Hyderabad. The city retains much of the charm associated with its glorious past, while catapulting itself into the 21st century as India's most sought after software centre. Hyderabad is famous for its gem-studded jewellery, pearls, designed bangles, and home furnishings. In Hyderabad, one can experience a unique blend of the old dominion and rustic charm within the trappings of new age modernity.

Taj Deccan, Hyderabad is set amidst verdant green lawns. 30 kms from the Rajiv Gandhi International airport at Shamshabad, Taj Deccan is minutes away from the city centre, making it an ideal and convenient location for the travellers.

LOBBY

Designed to mesmerise, the lobby and reception at Taj Deccan boasts an international and contemporary look. Wood columns casings, cove lighted ceilings and hand cut crystal chandeliers from Schonbek Canada enhance the elegance and spaciousness of the lobby. A swanky Lobby Lounge gives the entire reception area the perfect lounge feel.
